

Geneva Bioinformatics (GeneBio) S.A. (hereinafter known as GeneBio) has been granted exclusive rights by the Swiss Institute of Bioinformatics (hereinafter known as SIB) for the licensing of the PROSITE and SWISS-2DPAGE databases to all entities accessing these databases for commercial use.

These licensed databases are for research purposes only, and not for clinical use.

The SIB is responsible for maintaining and updating these licensed databases and is responsible for the content and validity of these licensed databases.

GeneBio makes no representation or warranty regarding results obtained from using any information, products or services offered.

SIB and GeneBio bear no responsibility for any incidental or consequential damages or direct or indirect damages that result from the use of results, data or information, which have been provided through their servers.

The responsibility of GeneBio and the SIB is limited to applying their best efforts in providing and publishing up to date programs and data.

GeneBio provides Internet links to other remote sites and services. GeneBio employees, consultants, and agents are not responsible for the availability of these services.

All information regarding access rights and use of the licensed databases and services provided by GeneBio are described by the license agreement(s) between GeneBio and the user.

The names of the Swiss Institute of Bioinformatics (SIB) and of Geneva Bioinformatics (GeneBio) S.A. should not be associated with publicity or business promotion without prior written approval.
